Introduction: So You Want to Tilt the Playing Field..... 13

PART I Soft Touch: Finessing, Influencing, and Persuading Others

- 1 Winning Is a Mindset: The Great Wallenda Effect.....17
Winning begins with your inner self.
- 2 Linkage: The Stealth Factor.....19
Linkage strategies are relationship strategies designed to make it possible for you to lead and persuade.
- 3 Alignment: Soar Points.....25
Alignment techniques play against and harness the other person's energy while establishing a pattern of agreement.
- 4 Needs: Making Your Ideas Irresistible.....29
In the quest to satisfy our psychological needs, we are guided by emotion rather than reason. It is this quest for satisfaction that energizes the persuasive process.
- 5 Control: How to Listen So People Will Talk and Talk So People Will Listen.....33
There is a quantum difference between speech and persuasion. Speaking is about giving out information. Persuasion is about getting through. It is about control.

- 6 Evaluation: Finders Keepers, Losers Beepers.....39
The right communication tactic may be to initiate a call or it may be to postpone a caller’s invitation to talk. And then it may be to send a fax. Or call a meeting. Or send a letter.
- 7 Reading: People Are an Open Book.....43
To be able to persuasively present your ideas and to prevent resistance you must read how the other person makes decisions. How they make sense of things. It may not be the same as how you make sense of things.
- 8 LANCER: Postcards From the Top.....49
You have won a nod of acceptance. But victories are fragile. The tactics for being a good winner now come into play.

PART II Trouble Shooting: Settling for More

- 9 Finessing Hostility, Aggression, and Anger: Dancing in the Minefield.....53
People who are hostile, argumentative, or angry are unreachable. Standing up to irrational people is the norm. Finessing people who insist on being right rather than reasonable is the art.
- 10 Overcoming Rejection: Riding the Crest of a Slump.....57
Rejection is a negative response. But a response by definition means the lines of communication are open.
- 11 Running Through Walls: The Trying Game.....61
A stonewall mentality is much more difficult to manage than rejection. When you are stonewalled the lines of communication are slammed shut.
- 12 Finessing Worth, Value, and Share Differences: Waging Peace.....67
Worth, value, or share differences are sometimes best dealt with by negotiating an approach rather than negotiating a position.
- 13 Finessing People Who Would Rather Be Right Than Reasonable: Slow Squeezing.....71
Many disagreements are not so much about money as they are about fairness.

PART III Hard Bargain: Winning When the Score Is Kept in Dollars

- 14 Analytics: Choice Points.....79
Will your negotiating strategy be overreaching or moderate? Will the tactics you choose be rigid or accommodating?
- 15 Relationships: Walking Between the Raindrops.....83
Analytic: The relationship you have or want to have with the other person will impact your negotiating goal.

16 Power: The Insurmountable Opportunities Factor.....	89
Analytic: The relative balance of negotiating power will impact your negotiating goal. Understanding power is understanding what it is, how it is created, and how it is lost.
17 Basic Training: Bombs-Away Bargaining and White-Knuckle Horse Trading.....	93
Playing for keeps. The art and psychology of the rough and tumble, the down and dirty.
18 Mind Tricks: The Squish Factor.....	103
Manage how the other person feels about themselves and you manage how effectively they will negotiate against you.
19 Sliders and Curves: Hold-on-to-the-Roll-Bar Negotiating.....	111
Some tactics just aren't as pretty as others.
20 Timing, Tempo, and Turbocharging: Making Time Your Ally.....	121
Time can be your worst enemy or your best ally.

PART IV The Deal-Maker's Playbook:
Low-Impact, High-Yield Tips, Tricks, and Tactics

Thirty-six common negotiating encounters: What to look for. What to do. What not to do.
